PETITIONER:  RESPONDENT:
REQUEST FOR INFORMAL DISCOVERY CONFERENCE — FAMILY LAW [Code Civ. Proc. § 2016.080; LR 7.05.1(E)]	CASE NUMBER: _____

Briefly describe the nature of the discovery dispute and the reasons for requesting a conference. Do not exceed two (2) pages. Attach any supporting “Meet and Confer” (Code Civ. Proc. § 2016.040) declaration. Attach the discovery and responses/objections in dispute only if a motion has not already been filed.

NOTE: This request must be filed and then served on the opposing party or counsel with proof of service attached. Within three (3) court days of service, any party or parties objecting to the request must file a “Response to Request for Informal Discovery Conference – Family Law (FL-021), available from the Court’s website (see below) or from the Family Law Clerk’s Office, which shall be filed and served in the same manner as the request. If not granted within ten (10) calendar days, the request is deemed denied. If the conference is not scheduled within thirty (30) days of the request, it is deemed denied. The conference will not be scheduled on or after any presently existing discovery cut-off date unless the date has been extended by timely motion, or written stipulation and order.
